| | Question: Comments instructor or course |
| Koch | Professor Koch is one of the most intelligent professors I have ever met during my time at Texas Tech. Ask him anything about religion and he will most definitely have an answer for you. I'm glad that I was able to be taught by him my last semester. I especially loved his dad jokes and all the magic tricks he would show us before class started! |
| Koch | Really enjoyed the class very interesting and the different way test were handled |
| Koch | Hands down of the best educators at Texas Tech. He is the sole reason that sociology is my minor and definitely does more than just teach a syllabus. |
| Koch | Dr. Koch is one of the more influential professors I've had in my four years here. He inspires critical thinking while encouraging you to keep an open mind to controversial subjects. |
| Koch | Best professor and great class |
| Koch | One of the best teachers I've ever had |
| Koch | does a very good job, would for sure recommend him and this class to anyone. i for sure think this is the only class that had me looking forward to reading research articles and im always thinking and observing this outside of class that would be a good discussion inside. 10/10 |
| Koch | The best professor I have had in my four years at Tech. So passionate about what he teaches and makes sure we get a chance to explore different topics we are interested about. |
| Koch | Dr. Koch is most likely the best and most influential professor that I have had over my current 148 hours completed. |
| Koch | Best teacher I've had at Texas Tech! I loved how the class was discussion based I think its the most effective way to learn! Loved hearing everyones opinions while others remained respectful. |
| Koch | This is one of the most thought provoking classes I have taken. The instructor encourages individual thought and self-reflection, rather than focused on regurgitation of material. He also teaches the class as a sociology class rather than an English class, like some other instructors. |
